

Jainendra Sharma is currently working as an Assistant Professor of Law at the School of Law, IILM University, Gurugram. He is an interdisciplinary academician with over seven years of teaching and research experience in Law, Philosophy, and International Relations. He previously served as an Assistant Professor at the University of Delhi, where he taught courses on Public Law, Philosophy and International Relations. His teaching approach blends Socratic dialogue and Psychoanalytical with reflective inquiry. He focuses on developing students' analytical reasoning, ethical understanding, and conceptual clarity. His areas of academic interest include Constitutional Law, Environmental Law, Jurisprudence, Philosophy of Law, International Law, Cyber Law, and Criminology, with emphasis on Sustainability, Justice, and Governance.

Educational Qualification

- PhD in Law (Pursuing), Faculty of Law, University of Delhi
- LLM (Constitutional and Environmental Law), Indian Law Institute, New Delhi
- LLB, Faculty of Law, University of Delhi
- Master's in International Relations, Chhatrapati Shahu Ji Maharaj University, Kanpur
- Master's in Philosophy, Chhatrapati Shahu Ji Maharaj University, Kanpur
- Bachelor's in Philosophy, Chhatrapati Shahu Ji Maharaj University, Kanpur

Research and Scholarly Publication

Sharma, J. K. (2025). Ecological and Environmental Crimes: A Threat to Sustainable Development. In Sustainable Development and Environmental Governance, Springer Nature. DOI: 10.1007/978-3-031-96432-9.

His research contributes to evolving discussions on environmental justice, sustainability, and the legal response to ecological harm.

International Conference Presentation

Mr. Sharma presented his paper titled “Climate Change and Climate Justice: Towards a Sustainable Justice Framework in Climate Governance” at the International Conference on Sustainable Development to Protect the Environment, the Climate, and Human Living Conditions (29 September - 2 October 2025). The conference was jointly organised by the University of Paris (France) and Europa Universität Viadrina (Germany).

Other Professional Engagements

He has worked with the Delhi Commission for the Protection of Child Rights (DCPCR) and the Quality Council of India (QCI) as a Senior Assessor. His work involved institutional assessments, research evaluations, and governance studies related to child rights and public service delivery.